

What America Loses If Trump Loses

Biden deal eliminates Trump blessings with a new green deal, tax increases, China suckupism, socialism, etc.

Astute Americans know that Joe Biden does not know what he would do if elected President. Some say that's why he brought Kamala into his inner circle. She will be calling the shots. One thing we know is that the Biden family will be richer with world shaping positions, and perhaps Joe will even be able to claim his 50% share of the family's income from unknown sources.

Perhaps we will see a cabinet that is made up of Chinese Nationals as Biden appears to have an uncommonly deep love of China and its hordes of cash. It is a mutually good feeling as Biden has literally paved the way for the Chinese Communist Party's entrance to the world stage. Biden took China's word for it because they treated him swell while they robbed America of millions of jobs, stole our factories, cheated on trade rules, and violated international rules.

A well-understood long-time Biden quote repeated often is "The U.S. welcomes the emergence of a prosperous, integrated China." Before he was VP, Biden told the Chinese in 2001. Now with COVID and the few honest news sources we have in this country, Americans' distrust of China is at its all-time high. Joe Biden is sure Americans are stupid and he is trying to rewrite history, hope voters forget the decades he spent rubber-stamping China's economic rise.

Ironically, Biden criticizes Trump for a slow response on China travel, yet he attacked President Trump's restrictions on travel from China as irrational and "hysterical xenophobia." Experts now admit President Trump's action saved American lives. Biden is not accustomed to making mistakes.

The green new deal, socialism, higher taxes, etc. are not the only issues with which Americans will have to deal. Concern is rampant as to how Biden respond to the countries that have made his family rich when they ask for the inevitable favor. Will he give up America for additional family favors?

In his new book, "Profiles in Corruption: Abuse of Power by America's Progressive Elite," Peter Schweizer writes that "Political figures have long used their families to route power and benefits for their own self-enrichment." He expounds that "one particular politician — Joe Biden — emerges as the king of the sweetheart deal, with no less than five family members benefiting from his largesse, favorable access and powerful position for commercial gain. In Biden's case, these deals include foreign partners and, in some cases, even US taxpayer dollars. The Biden family's apparent self-enrichment involves five family members: Joe's son Hunter, son-in-law Howard, brothers James and Frank, and sister Valerie."

You're going to love this book. You won't want to put it down. But, despite your enjoyment with it, it will scare the hell out of you about what is happening to your country.

Preface:

There are many of us who, after crying out for relief for our country for eight years, believe in our hearts that God's answer to America is Donald Trump. One person does not. His name is Joe Biden and he has good reason for feeling differently. He and Kamala Harris are preparing to spoil all the gains America made since Biden left office as VP four years ago. Many are praying that we don't ever see the Jaws-like advertisements after the November 3 election. You remember, the one that said:

“It's Baaaack!

Many people have learned to love President Trump as God's gift. It is up to US again to make sure we make the most of God's great gift. Unless you want Joe Biden back, vote for Donald J. Trump for Term # 2. This book tells us all what we lose if Trump loses. How bad will Joe Biden be? We do tell you in this book but one thing is for sure, nobody knows just how bad a Biden administration will be, and the facts show that Joe Biden himself knows just as little about how bad it will be than the rest of us. But, it will be bad.

If Biden ran and was elected president right after the Obama / Biden regime gave up the power gavel, it might not be so bad because we would already have the first four bad years under our belt. But, the people elected Trump in between and if somehow the Democrats are able to steal this election, things will be worse. Why? Because even if you don't know it, Trump brought over 1000 wins to America and Americans are enjoying them going into this election. If Biden wins, they are all gone and you will miss them as Kamala smiles and says: Hey, we told you what we would do?"

I knew that I was voting for Donald Trump as soon as he broke through the pack of Republicans and began his showdowns with his real opponent, Hillary Clinton. Joe Biden is the new Hillary Clinton. Like many Democrats, I had had enough of Obama and the Clintons, and Vice President Biden. Most Americans feel the same.

At the end of the day, when the dust had settled, and the battle was over, the last man standing won. Donald Trump won the election despite all odds. In many ways he got elected because he was the last man standing between an Obama-like American hell-hole and a return to the Promised Land of our founders. Joe Biden knows the secret of bringing back that Obama-like American hell hole and he promises to bring it back to an unsuspecting public if we let him.

What would America be like with Joe Biden in charge? Don't make me think about it!

Many are unaware that Joe Biden has been in two other presidential campaigns in which he won the vice presidency thanks to his promised loyalty to Barack Obama. During their first campaign for the White House, the Obama-Biden ticket "firmly" promised that "no family making less than $250,000 a year would see any form of a tax increase."

Within a year America noticed that the Affordable Care Act included a tax increase, aka a tax penalty for failing to purchase health insurance, paid primarily by people earning less than $50,000 annually. Though that levy is gone thanks to Trump, the ACA still includes a poorly implemented tax on medium-size and large employers that don't offer health insurance to most of their workers.

This penalty, when enforced by Joe Biden will cost low-income families an average of about $700 a year. This includes those whose employers aren't penalized. The penalty's effect on job availability would make its cost felt by a wide swath of workers. No taxes turned out to be the first broadcast of Fake News. Joe Biden promises more.

Obamacare included many other significant taxes that Obama had Biden hid so well and the corrupt press covered up to make them invisible. Even the Congressional Budget Office overlooked their effects when it originally scored the bill 2010. Later CBO had to backtrack. Backtrack is another way of saying the Democrats were forced to tell the truth because the people demanded it.

Today Mr. Biden takes a similarly veiled approach to advancing the "clean energy revolution and environmental justice" outlined in his platform. Instead of using a carbon tax, which would use market forces to reduce the economic damage but also obviously violate his tax pledge, he would apply the force of regulation. He aims, for example, to eliminate emissions for passenger vehicles, which would make buying a new car thousands of dollars more expensive. As President Trump is apt to explain, regulations are “stealth taxation, especially on the poor.” Biden will get any extra dime that you may have. He’ll either keep it or give it to his five family members.

And the poor would suffer most under Joe Biden’s platform. His plan is to divide U.S. households into five income groups. The regulatory costs of each quintile are estimated as a percentage of each quintile’s average income. The costs to the bottom group amount to 15.3% of its total income—representing a burden equal to all the taxes they currently pay. This group would experience part of the cost as lower wages, but the biggest bite would come in diminished purchasing power due to higher prices for energy, cars and other consumer goods. In other words, your purchasing power will go down and the number of dollars you keep will be minimal. Ask Joe Biden about that?

If that weren’t enough to convince you that Biden’s tax plan would be disastrous for American workers, five independent analyses have concluded that Biden would raise taxes on middle-class Americans:

- The Tax Policy Center concluded his “proposals would increase taxes on average on all income groups”
- The Tax Foundation concluded that Biden would lead to higher taxes “across all income groups”
- The American Enterprise Institute concluded that households at every income level “would see higher taxes
- A Penn Wharton budget model analysis say that taxes would go up across all income levels
- The Committee for A Responsible Federal Budget blasted the plan as a way for taxes to go up across all income levels

Donald Trump saved the US from Hillary and he is the only candidate we have who wants to protect the people from Joe Biden.

Trump defied the status quo of rich donors controlling the government for their personal benefit. Donald Trump to many, including myself is one of the greatest gifts of all-time from God himself.

Joe Biden is poised to take that gift back from Americans.

Hillary would have been more like Obama and Biden -- socialistic and Marxist and she came off even more radical than Obama. For example, Hillary never seemed to be too keen on freedom. She likes her freedom for sure but not yours. She was working on eliminating the Bill of Rights and had already earmarked the # 1 and #2 Amendments of the Constitution for removal.

Yes, we are at the point in our history in which a presidential candidate's position of not being actively opposed to the Bill of Rights is a key selling point for their candidacy.

I sure hope you enjoy this book and I hope that it inspires you to continue to take action. Our Congress can certainly be more pro-American and more responsive to the people's needs and not their own. I hope the book in some ways helps you look at things differently.

Our new president has settled in and he is already implementing a host of innovative items on his agenda. He has shed a dreaded disease at the same time. I hope you digest Biden's entire plan, be willing to reject, and subtract it from your own positive notions for building a better America. And, please do not trust the press to do your thinking for you. And whatever you do, do not trust Joe Biden to create a workable America.

Together, we can help make the US a far better country. We should smile as we accomplished our first and best objective. We elected Donald Trump as our president once. Now, we must support his hard work, elect him for a second term, and give him a Congress without Nancy Pelosi and Chuck Schumer so he can help America even more. Only the voters can get those two out of Trump's way by electing representatives from the Republican Party who will work with the President in keeping America Great Again.

Chapter 1 The Greatest Gift to America from God in 2016

His Name still is Donald J. Trump

Evangelicals Ask God for HIS help. God Answers With Trump!

This is the antithesis of Joe Biden on many fronts. This picture was taken when Donald J. Trump was released by Trump Supporters as a visualization of the prayer chains that were in place to help President Trump recover from COVID-19. God heard the prayers of his people and made the President well again. Joe Biden was busy blaming the president for catching the virus.

The fact that the president got sick with a disease from which many Americans and others have died, caused Trump supporters and detractors to think of what life would be like without our revered president. What if Kamala Harris acting as President and Joe Biden was still enjoying life in the bunker.

And, so it is clear that a book titled, What America Loses if Trump Loses would be moot if the President did not survive his illness. Supporters are very pleased and detractors according to their own words would have preferred a different outcome.

We all had a chance to evaluate for a period of time what life would be like without Donald J. Trump, and for supporters like myself, it was a very scary thought. Now, what makes the thought even worse is that if the election rather than the virus is rigged so that Biden becomes president we have the worst of two worlds. 1. We have a world without Trump as the leader of the free world and 2. We have Biden and Kamala and his Chinese puppet-masters calling the shots in America.

Many Trump proponents will tell you that Trump's original agenda was rich in content and mostly completed but it has not been totally completed and his guidance is needed more than ever today. Some of the reasons Trump is our president are listed below:

- 1) The people wanted a president who would take the people's side of issues.
- 2) The people did not want four to eight more years of what they saw as the progressive politics of Barack Obama as reflected by Hillary Clinton's swing further to the left.
- 3) The people wanted border protection
- 4) The people wanted radical Islamic terrorism to be called out by name and wanted a president to protect America

- 5) The people saw the prior president putting his fingers on the scales of justice when racial incidents were involved.
- 6) The IRS had begun to discriminating against TEA Party and other conservative groups.
- 7) Conservatives were not pleased with the actions of liberal judges and justices appointed to the federal judiciary, particularly the Supreme Court. They saw Trump as a way to getting justices that reflected the will of the people.
- 8) There was concerned about our weakening military power reflected by the people's anxiety about the declining percentage of funding dedicated to the military.
- 9) The people suffered distress over left-leaning political indoctrination, and suppression of free speech, running rampant on college campuses and in public schools.
  - A. There was much annoyance and in fact resentment toward Barack Obama who described conservatives in the heartland as "clinging to their guns and Bibles."
  - B. There was a revolt about Hillary Clinton's use of the term "deplorables" to describe people who were not liberal.
  - C. The people did not trust Hillary Clinton to do the will of the people. She was perceived her as a phony, who had lied about issues such as her explanations of the Benghazi incident or her much-disputed emails.
  - D. Many people were alarmed at the national debt, believing that Clinton would be a big spender on liberal causes and would make the situation worse.
  - E. The people actually expected Clinton to win. Hey voted in great numbers hoping to minimize her victory margin and at least be able to claim a political mandate.
  - F. The people did not like Obamacare and saw Democratic pushed universal health care as a budget buster.

- G. Overall the people saw the federal government exerting too much power over their lives. The federal government was growing too fast with an ever-increasing size, scope and power.
- H. Donald Trump was viewed as a highly successful businessman. It was believed that he would run the administration in a business-like manner.

Think of this. The list of 1 through H above is only part of Biden's whole destructive platform for America.

The phrase and now the book, What America Loses if Trump Loses brings to mind all of the generalities listed above plus the specific actions that Trump has taken in his four years. All the bad stuff would still be here and there would be a ton more coming.

America won those issues in 2016 by electing Donald J. Trump as president and without him Americans know they would kiss all of those gains and many more as we show in detail in future Biden chapters. So, the Trump win in 2016 was important and the Trump win in 2020 has the same level of importance to the American people.

The Headlines Will Change

Chapter 2 We're Friends; Despite Their Trump Negatives

The Headlines Will Change

Donald Trump and Joe Biden supporters are not at all alike even when they like each other. They are divided not just in their views of the candidates but in their broader political beliefs and their values. Their personal relationships are not in synch either. The statistics back this fact. I am probably one of the few with friends on the other side.

Roughly four-in-ten registered voters in both camps say that they do have one close friend who supports the other guy. Fewer than a quarter say they have just a few friends who think differently. Pew Research checked out these attitudes in the summer of 2020.

Voters instead report mostly that their friends are min-clones of themselves who share their political preferences. It makes conversations easier they say and there is little heat in their personal exchanges. For example six-in-ten Trump supporters have a lot of friends who also support for the president and his attempt at four more years. A lightly smaller share of Biden supporter's friends are in the same boat.

I have some wonderful loving liberal friends who go ballistic when they think of Donald Trump as a person. They refer to him as a disgusting non-human being and then they fire off word-flames and word bombs to belittle Trump and his presidency.

Now, I find myself within weeks of the 2020 election and I am motivated to say. "Too Bad guys! Who the hell cares what you think?" I think they are going to lose but they don't. They are belligerent about it and they can't even agree with me that BLM and ANTIFA and the riots and looters and the defunding of the police are bad for America.

The closer to the election, the more incorrigible they become in their hate of our president and the more they can't wait for the Dems being in control. Most don't realize that their taxes will go up, jobs will be hard to find, and the US will be in chaos when the democrats try to collect the guns.

I have a friend in Houston Texas. He hates Trump with a passion but can't explain why His dad told him Republicans bad and Democrats good. He told him years and years ago when he was growing up. My father told me the same thing but he changed with the times.

Dad said that we were the little guys and that Democrats were for the little guys and Republicans were for business. As I hit the legal age for voting in PA, the Democrats had begun their metamorphosis into socialism and my father recognized it. I felt liberated and I became an Independent.

My friends' father did not update his thinking nor did my friend to this day. He still thinks Democrats good and Republicans bad. When CNN adopted the Democrats or vice versa, he never would listen to conservative radio or Fox News back when Fox was conservative.

CNN is still his bible and so he hates Trump with all the fervor he believed all his life about Republicans being bad. My dad suggested I register Democrat instead of Independent so that I could vote in the PA primary. It made sense so I did. I have been registered Democrat ever since but that has nothing to do with how I vote.

My dad and I often talked about politics and we most often felt the same on candidates. Neither my dad nor I voted for an important Democrat after 1987 when we voted for Bob Casey Senior for PA Governor. Why? Because the Democrats adopted platforms such as abortion and liberalism and socialism, isms in which we did not believe,

My Houston friend Joe's brother in law John told me of visits to him in Houston over the years. He cautioned me not to attempt to talk to him about political truth. John is conservative as am I . He said his brother-in-law is a militant Democrat for the whole deal. He gets everything from CNN from morning to evening.

During their visits, when Joe would take a toilet break, John would switch the TV to Fox and the minute Joe came back, despite John being the guest in his home, he would switch back to CNN. It was CNN all day unless they were visiting the Alamo in San Antonio or going to an Astros game or dinner. CNN encouraged Joe's hate and Joe was and is a good soldier, full of the venom and lies provided by his only channel CNN.

I have another good friend Bob who also serves as my accountant. He's a good guy and a great accountant but he hates Trump with a passion. In my opinion, like Joe, it is an uninformed hate. Last week I released a new book titled "We Love Trump!" As you know, it is the new Trump rally cry instead of "Lock Her UP!" .

I sent a press release out to the media and to my friends including Joe and Bob. Bob could not stand that I support Trump. The press release was a reminder of his Trump Hate and the fact that I was an unabashed Trump supporter. He wrote back with two emails. He did not get all his venom in on the first email.

Here was his first response to me: "You are a "goner!""

That was not enough. He thought it over and emailed a second message fuller of hate: "Lier, cheater, crook, adulterer, racist, probable rapist, COWARD! Shame on you" Humph! I use these two examples to show it is not all hunky-dory in the Trump supporter world but we are holding our own.

I reminded Bob that if as a friend, he sold tooth brushes, I would not bad mouth them as not preventing cavities. So as s Bob friend with my occupation being a writer, I might have expected Bob's support of my writing efforts. Plus of course he knows I make my income on my writing. Nonetheless his hate for Trump dominates his thinking.

Like most liberal Trump haters, however, who present no facts, my friend Bob offered no truth to prove his accusations. Most liberals do not even know of Jill and Joe Biden's infidelity to their spouses. They cheated on their spouses. This was before Joe Biden's wife and daughter perished in a car accident.

Jill and Joe were adulterers and most liberals think Joe is as pure as newly fallen snow and they can't believe the truth about him. But they have no problem accepting the fake news and lies about Trump from CNN.

<https://www.washingtonexaminer.com/news/jill-bidens-ex-husband-accuses-her-and-joe-biden-of-affair-that-broke-up-marriage>

That URL takes you to an article in which Jill Biden's ex-husband accuses her and Joe Biden of an affair that broke up their marriage. The piece is by Anthony Leonard. Type "Joe Biden Broke Up my Marriage," into your Web Browser if you want to read the story.

About my friends, I admit that I am still perplexed about how somebody who was once in my inner circle can be enraged with such hate that they cannot see the good or evil in anybody unless CNN or MSNBC or some other liberal progressive media Democrat standard media rag drop some clues about how it is OK for them to feel.

I am thankful that I have not lost any friends during the Trump Derangement Period but we all must be careful as sometimes it is tough to hold one's cool.

Joe Biden claims that he is for an ambitious progressive platform. Here's everything you need to know:

The ex-Obama VEEP says he wants to be like Franklin Roosevelt, reviving the U.S. after an economic catastrophe while also fundamentally transforming it to socialism for decades to come. Bernie Sanders added to the Biden platform and according to Sanders, Biden's platform would make him "the most progressive president since FDR."

Biden has it all wrong about the Trump administration failing to work a unified national pandemic response to the virus, and Biden says he will change that for sure. He thinks the best approach is to hire 100,000 people to conduct contact tracing.

Biden would like a national mask mandate but he is concerned about his constitutional authority to impose it. That still may not stop him. He would encourage mandates on the state and local level, and would work in new restrictions or lockdowns if he felt they were necessary. Most Americans know that Joe Biden is a Johnny come lately on COVID as he fought Trump on early travel restrictions on China and Europe. Bidens complaints appear to most to be disingenuous.

Biden complains about Trump's economies yet he has no solution that would match the success of Trump. Trump's policies would lead to an estimated 11.2 million new jobs and a nominal income gain for the average household. Already Americans are enjoying an additional $6,000 per year with the Trump management of the economy.

Biden supports Obamacare for all even though he knows that it is unaffordable with deductibles out of reach for most Americans.

He wants to tax corporations and the wealthy at much higher rates, thus killing the jobs picture. Trump would say what my dad felt. Nobody ever got a job from a poor man.

Biden is against charter schools yet, he would send his own family to private schools. He wants to ban charter schools and triple federal aid — from $16 billion to about $48 billion. This will offer little relief to the poor who want to send their children to quality schools.

Biden wants to sign up for the World's Climate Change initiatives that stood to bankrupt the US treasury. He proposed $2 trillion in clean-energy investments and wants to eliminate coal. He wants to rip down 4 million perfectly good buildings to meet energy-efficiency standards, hitting net-zero greenhouse gas emissions for all new buildings by 2030. Poor people will have to get their wallets out to meet the Biden demands when the former Veep puts the U.S. on a path to net-zero CO2 emissions by 2050.

"When I think about climate change," Biden said, "the word I think of is 'jobs.'" He'd also cancel Trump's withdrawal of the U.S. from the Paris climate agreement.

Regarding criminal justice and race, Trump has already championed the cause with his One-Step Initiative. He would like to disavow his own 1994 crime bill by offering sweeping, progressive criminal justice reforms. But, why did he and Obama do nothing when they had all the power for eight years.

Chapter 3 Intro to Trump Promises Made & Kept

Joe Biden wants very much for everybody to believe him but he won't even promise things like packing the Supreme court. It's easy to keep promises when you make none.

Biden and Obama claimed in their eight years of a dismal economy that they had several overarching priorities: Get the economy back on track, impose new regulations on the financial sector, pass a health care plan, overhaul immigration law and address climate change. These are all Democrat plays that win the people little.

As his presidency concluded, PolitiFacts had a meter that showed just 48% of Biden's promises were kept. So, why should we believe him now. Another 28% were part of a Compromise. With no explanation, he broke a full 24 percent of his promises. Nobody in the press can find Trump promises made and not kept.

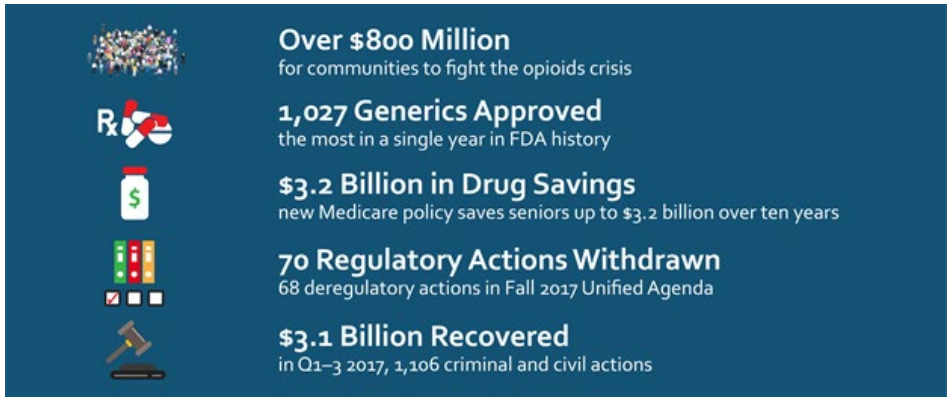

When Biden and Obama had Democrat majorities in the House and Senate in 2009, Obama claims to have got a lot done. But, then again he was forced later to say that, though promised, there were few “shovel ready jobs.” It was all poppy cock as Obama and Biden paid back political favors with the recovery dollars. Obamacare itself was a debacle that still has not been straightened out.

Obama had trouble pushing through his agenda. His decision to use executive power infuriated Republicans in Congress and prompted challenges in court. But it also helped him follow through on a number of things he promised voters. But they were not things that helped America and that is why Americans looked for relief with Donald Trump’s presidency

On November 8, 2016 Donald Trump became President of America’s United States. On this day, he became one of the most powerful men in the world. Trump waged a campaign that destroyed conventional political strategy and he won his first election against the predictions of almost everybody. Unlike Obama and Biden Trump kept his promises.

Chapter 4 2017 Trump Accomplishments

Incidentals

This chapter takes a brief look first at some of the lesser accomplishments that I call incidentals in the first part and then moves on to some of the more significant accomplishments that happened in Trump's first year. Again, there are far too many to get to them all.

The reason this and the next three chapters are in this book is simple. These chapter show the wins Trump brought-in for the American people despite the Democrats trying to remove him from office with the Mueller investigation, impeachment, and other shenanigans.

In a Biden Administration if Trump loses the election, all of these wins would not only not be accomplished, Biden has promised to reverse them all. So, What America Loses If Trump Loses can be described as everything and the country's future.

Here is the 2017 list:.

1. It was three days after the inauguration that on January 23, President Trump reinstated and expanded the Mexico City Policy. This policy blocks the funding for international organizations that perform or promote abortion. When Trump promised he was pro-life, though he had waffled in his past private life, he was a serious pro-life president.

This new program became known as Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance (PLGHA), which now covers $8.8 billion in family planning and global health funds that go to organizations abroad. None of the providers may perform or promote abortion. That means Planned Parenthood on a global scale, would not be included.

2. Moving right along in 2017, on February 22, the Department of Education, in conjunction with the Department of Justice (DOJ) rescinded President Obama's guidance that required public schools to allow transgender students to use the bathrooms and showers of their choice. (Reuters)

President Donald Trump's administration on Wednesday of this week, revoked landmark guidance to public schools letting transgender students use the bathrooms of their choice, reversing a signature initiative of former Democratic President Barack Obama. This was not a popular notion for conservatives and it was on Trump's list of Obama policies that had to be reversed. s

Of course the left was and still is not happy. There had been an expectation that the reversal would inflame passions in the latest conflict in America between believers in traditional values and social progressives. Most of us remember that last May Obama and Biden decided to let transgender students use the bathrooms matching their chosen gender identity.

The guidance had teeth in that Obama and Biden threatened to withhold funding for schools that did not comply. Transgender people had hailed the step as victory for their civil rights.

Trump, who had just been in office a month taking office in January, quickly rescinded those guidelines, even though they had been put on hold by a federal judge, arguing that states and public schools should have the authority to make their own decisions without federal interference.

3. On May 4, President Trump signed an executive order promoting free speech and religious liberty (known as the “Religious Liberty Executive Order”), broadly setting forth religious liberty as a policy priority of the administration, and requiring all federal agencies to take action to protect it. This was a big deal.

The order also more specifically addressed conscience protections, forthcoming guidance from the DOJ, and religious liberty in the context of free speech.

Here is a quote explaining why the President issued the Executive order: “America is a nation of believers, and together we are strengthened by the power of prayer.” Trump noted that the order ensure that the faith-based and community organizations that form the bedrock of our society have strong advocates in the White House and throughout the Federal Government. The objective is structured in order to:

- provide recommendations on the Administration's policy agenda affecting faith-based and community programs;
- provide recommendations on programs and policies where faith-based and community organizations may partner and/or deliver more effective solutions to poverty;
- apprise the Administration of any failures of the executive branch to comply with religious liberty protections under law; and
- reduce the burdens on the exercise of free religion.

The Executive Order created the White House Faith and Opportunity Initiative within the Executive Office of the President

- The Initiative will be led by the newly created position of Advisor to the White House Faith and Opportunity Initiative (Initiative) and be supported by experts and various community and faith leaders from outside of the Federal Government.
- All executive departments and agencies that do not have Centers for Faith and Opportunity Initiatives will designate a liaison to the Initiative.

President Trump has made it clear that religious freedom is a priority throughout his Administration.

4. On August 25, President Trump made more changes to things that had been staples of the Obama / Biden administration, He announced changes to the Department of Defense (DOD) policy which had allowed military personnel to serve even if they openly self-identified as transgender. (A DOD study found the Obama administration's policy to be detrimental to military readiness, lethality, and unit cohesion.

The president made the changes via a presidential memorandum. Here are its main components provided by the president:

Section 1. Policy. (a) Until June 2016, the Department of Defense (DoD) and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) (collectively, the Departments) generally prohibited openly transgender individuals from accession into the United States military and authorized the discharge of such individuals.

Shortly before President Obama left office, however, his Administration dismantled the Departments' established framework by permitting transgender individuals to serve openly in the military, authorizing the use of the Departments' resources to fund sex-reassignment surgical procedures, and permitting accession of such individuals after July 1, 2017.

The Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of Homeland Security have since extended the deadline to alter the currently effective accession policy to January 1, 2018, while the Departments continue to study the issue.

In my judgment, the previous Administration failed to identify a sufficient basis to conclude that terminating the Departments' longstanding policy and practice would not hinder military effectiveness and lethality, disrupt unit cohesion, or tax military resources, and there remain meaningful concerns that further study is needed to ensure that continued implementation of last year's policy change would not have those negative effects.

(b) Accordingly, by the authority vested in me as President and as Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces of the United States under the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including Article II of the Constitution, I am directing the Secretary of Defense, and the Secretary of Homeland Security with respect to the U.S. Coast Guard, to return to the longstanding policy and practice on military service by transgender individuals that was in place prior to June 2016 until such time as a sufficient basis exists upon which to conclude that terminating that policy and practice would not have the negative effects discussed above.

The Secretary of Defense, after consulting with the Secretary of Homeland Security, may advise me at any time, in writing, that a change to this policy is warranted.

5. On September 7, DOJ filed an amicus brief with the Supreme Court defending the religious freedom rights of baker Jack Phillips in Masterpiece Cakeshop v. Colorado Civil Rights Commission. This filing is representative of other actions defending religious freedom taking place throughout the Trump administration DOJ.

6. On October 6, DOJ issued guidance and an implementing memo (as instructed by the Religious Liberty Executive Order) to all federal agencies explaining religious freedom law and how religious liberty must be protected. This guidance laid out a broad defense of religious liberty based on multiple statutes and provided each federal agency with guidelines for protecting religious liberty.

Also on October 6, the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) proposed two regulations to deal with the Obamacare “HHS contraceptive mandate” that had for years violated conscience and religious liberty. These new regulations exempt organizations that have moral or religious objections to purchasing insurance that includes coverage of contraceptives and abortion-causing drugs and devices.

7. On Dec 22, 2017, President Donald Trump signed the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA). It cut individual income tax rates, doubled the standard deduction, and eliminated personal exemptions from the tax code. The top individual tax rate dropped from 39.6% to 37%, and numerous itemized deductions were eliminated or affected as well. The Act also cut the corporate tax rate from 35% to 21% beginning in 2018. The corporate cuts are permanent, while the individual changes expire at the end of 2025 unless Congress acts to renew some or all of the provisions of the TCJA.

Major Accomplishments

1. All year—continual roll-back of regulations

Trump signed an executive order cutting regulations for small businesses and moved forward with plans to repeal the Clean Power Plan, one of Obama’s signature acts as president. Trump has also overseen moves to expand oil drilling in the Arctic and Gulf of Mexico and granted a permit to the Keystone XL pipeline previously rejected by Obama.

Trump vowed to reduce regulations he argued were strangling the economy, and he's taken important strides to do so in the wake of opposition from congressional Democrats, who argue the president's actions on climate are hurting America's standing in the world. Local governments led by Democrats have acted to reverse Trump's efforts on the Paris climate accords.

2 March 6, 2017 The travel ban

As we know, Trump ran on a platform of tougher immigration enforcement, both to protect American jobs and national security. A week into his presidency, he took one of his most controversial steps, banning most travelers from seven predominantly Muslim nations from entering the United States.

The move triggered protests across the country and court fights, but, by the end of the year, a version of Trump's ban was left standing.

Trump also took steps to increase border security and has seen a drop in arrests on the border, a possible sign of reduced entries.

He stepped up raids on immigrants in the country illegally and oversaw a surge in arrests across the country. The head of Immigration and Customs Enforcement says the agency plans to take an even more aggressive approach next year.

3. Mar 24, 2017 Pulling out of the Trans-Pacific Partnership

Trump began his presidency by carrying out another key promise, withdrawing from the Trans-Pacific Partnership, a massive trade deal with Asia he had called a "potential disaster for our country.” He has said his administration will secure new trade deals with America’s Asian allies, though firm details have yet to emerge.

Meanwhile, the administration is at work trying to renegotiate the North American Free Trade Agreement with Canada and Mexico. A new round of negotiations are slated to be held in January, and it’s possible Trump could decide to pull the U.S. from that deal as well.

4 . April Neil Gorsuch’s confirmation to the Supreme Court. Trump’s biggest early victory came when the Senate, in April, confirmed Neil Gorsuch to succeed the late Antonin Scalia on the Supreme Court.

It was on April 7. The president got to appoint his first SCOTUS nominee, Neil Gorsuch, who was confirmed to the Supreme Court. Justice Gorsuch was a great pick and Trump often bragged about it. He already has developed a reputation as an originalist who will rule the right way on religious liberty issues. Gorsuch is representative of President Trump’s judicial nominees overall.

Gorsuch’s appointment marked the end of a bitter struggle between Democrats and Republicans over the vacant seat. It was also a victory for Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.), who for nearly a year blocked former President Obama’s pick to replace Scalia from getting even a hearing to sit on the court.

The move also came as Trump aims to reshape the federal judiciary with a host of other conservative nominations. The Senate confirmed 12 of Trump’s federal appeals court judges in 2017, a record for a president’s first year in office.

5. June 1, 2017 Withdrawal from Paris climate deal

Trump followed through on one of his major campaign promises when he announced in June that the U.S. would leave the Paris climate deal reached under Obama. While there have since been conflicting reports on the administration's current stance on the agreement, the move fulfilled Trump's pledge to tackle one of Obama's signature achievements and take a tougher stance against the international community.

As noted in his June 1, 2017 remarks, President Trump made the decision to withdraw from the Paris Agreement because of the unfair economic burden imposed on American workers, businesses, and taxpayers by U.S. pledges made under the Agreement. The United States has reduced all types of emissions, even as we grow our economy and ensure our citizens' access to affordable energy.

Our results speak for themselves: U.S. emissions of criteria air pollutants that impact human health and the environment declined by 74% between 1970 and 2018. U.S. net greenhouse gas emissions dropped 13% from 2005-2017, even as our economy grew over 19 percent. The U.S. approach incorporates the reality of the global energy mix and uses all energy sources and technologies cleanly and efficiently, including fossil fuels, nuclear energy, and renewable energy.

In international climate discussions, we will continue to offer a realistic and pragmatic model – backed by a record of real world results – showing innovation and open markets lead to greater prosperity, fewer emissions, and more secure sources of energy. We will continue to work with our global partners to enhance resilience to the impacts of climate change and prepare for and respond to natural disasters.

Just as we have in the past, the United States will continue to research, innovate, and grow our economy while reducing emissions and extending a helping hand to our friends and partners around the globe.

6. June 16, 2017: Roll-back of some of Obama's Cuba policies

Trump followed up on his pledge to roll back Obama's opening up of relations with Cuba, tightening travel and commercial ties with the communist island. He also placed new financial restrictions on Havana, amid concerns over a series of bizarre "sonic attacks" targeting U.S. diplomats in the country.

While the moves were seen as a clear crackdown by Trump on rapprochement with Cuba, much of Obama's policies toward Havana essentially remain intact.

7. Dec 14 Moving to repeal Obama's net neutrality rules

In another blow to regulations enacted under Obama, the Federal Communications Commission voted to repeal its landmark net neutrality rules this month. The move drew ire from Democrats, consumer groups and tech companies, but was seen as a major win for advocates of less government oversight.

8. Dec 6 2017 Declared Jerusalem the capital of Israel

On December 6, 2017, US President Donald Trump announced the United States recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel and ordered the planning of the relocation of the U.S. Embassy in Israel from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

In a radical departure from decades of foreign policy, Trump announced that the U.S. would formally recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel and begin the process of moving its embassy to the contested holy city. The move signified one of Trump's boldest statements to the international community, and, specifically, the United Nations, which he has frequently criticized.

9. The tax-cut bill

On Dec 22, 2017, President Donald Trump signed the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA). It cut individual income tax rates, doubled the standard deduction, and eliminated personal exemptions from the tax code. The top individual tax rate dropped from 39.6% to 37%, and numerous itemized deductions were eliminated or affected as well. The Act also cut the corporate tax rate from 35% to 21% beginning in 2018. The corporate cuts are permanent, while the individual changes expire at the end of 2025 unless Congress acts to renew some or all of the provisions of the TCJA.

10. December 27 Fighting —and further degrading —ISIS

Largely following Obama's strategy, Trump dealt major blows to the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria, forcing the terrorist group to retreat from its two self-declared capitals:

Mosul and Raqqa, located in Iraq and Syria, respectively. Trump also expanded the military's authority to carry out air strikes in the Middle East, a factor some experts credit for his administration's progress against terrorism in the region.

Chapter 8 Four More Years!

Is Candidate Trump again destined to win?

Besides God saying it would be like that, there were a lot of reasons that Trump pulled off his 2016 victory. It is tough to differentiate direct intervention from the gifts God gave to “The Donald” at birth. Either way, Trump is blessed by God to deliver to the people. God gave him a temporary set of gifts back on his way to the 2020 election victory. The President is poised again in 2020 for a major victory and will endure and emerge as God’s emissary post COVID for the next four years from 2021 through 2025. God bless Donald Trump.

And, so, as you finish reading What America Loses When Trump Loses, you will know that America has already won the list of items included in the four years of wins, which we covered in the last set of chapter. With the onset of a Biden administration, these would all be reversed and the future would be like as if the country really wants the new green deal. Watch out what you vote for. T

That win list as you know is a huge list and it has already helped America. In Trump's next win, you can expect more of the same—lots more because with a Republican Senate and without Nancy Pelosi getting in his way, the President will be able to do a lot more for the people. Thanks for checking out this book.

You may know that I have written about twenty different books about the President. My last Trump book from September 2020 is titled, "Trump Assured 2020 Victory." In this book I have outlined two solutions for the President to implement to boost seniors social security and solve the student debt crisis. You'll love

Now I thank God publicly on behalf of all Americans for making our president well again and giving him the strength to again face the evil in our times and prevail. I will always help as much as I can.

There is too much hate in America?

We really need Trump Love:

In a book about Trump's accomplishments, I thought I would begin with a little of something that for a long-time was much easier to find than Trump love. I am talking about pure unadulterated Trump Hate. You can feel the hate when a Democrat enters the room. Sorry, folks, it is that bad and they don't want to make it better. Please don't reward their bad behavior with your vote. I wrote a book about that topic in November 2019 less than a year ago. Here is the cover and the title:

We must remember The negative well-wish of well-wishes for a save recovery from COVID came from a former Obama Staffer: “I Hope He Dies!” I am not kidding.

She tweeted and then deleted this short rant after Trump's COVID Diagnosis.

Sweet???

Hard as it is to believe a staff member to former President Barack Obama deleted this tweet recently. It suggested that she hoped that President Donald Trump would die after he announced that he tested positive for the novel coronavirus. Her name is Zara Rahim. Others did likewise but their wishes are against God's command of love. This young "lady" worked in the Office of Digital Strategy for Obama, as well as serving as the national spokeswoman for Hillary Clinton in her 2016 presidential campaign. She added this preamble:

"It's been against my moral identity to tweet this for the past four years, but, I hope he dies," This was the content of Rahim's since-deleted tweet." What a sweet-heart???

That's all she wrote. We're all thankful for that! May God redirect her efforts to the positive side in the future.

Chapter 9 We Love Trump!

We sure do!

After three full years and almost a fourth, like many Americans, I still happen to love our President for the right reasons. As I noted in my Chapter 1 editorial, I find him to be a gift from God to the American people in our time of great need. We still need him Lord God. Thank you for making him well. Please hear our prayers to keep him well so he can continue your work and ours.

After all the weak, wimpy, wobbly conservative leaders, groomed by establishment elitism, who offered little recognition or solutions for the concerns of the American citizens; Donald J. Trump, my eternal candidate for president and yours if you are like me, has been a deep breath of fresh air. Among the Republican electorate, his approval rating is a chart-topping 90% plus. Hey, I approve, and I am a reluctant Democrat.

Thank you, Donald J. Trump for doing the United States a big favor by taking on corruption in both political parties as well as the media. You are doing just fine and my friends and relatives appreciate your taking a hiatus from your wonderful storybook life and using your time to help us. We sure need it.

Supporters cheer as President Donald Trump speaks in Great Falls, Mont., on July 5. Among Republicans, his job approval rating stands at 88%. PHOTO: JOSHUA ROBERTS/REUTERS

When Donald Trump won in 2016, all Americans won. My sincere thanks to the Trumps for taking on the rot in the Washington DC Swamp area of America to bring America and Americans a big victory.

I still have my smile. Nobody can wipe it away. The president still has his.

"I love you too. Who said that?" Trump said in a joking manner while pointing to the crowd at a campaign rally. "Who said that?"

It is a new phenomenon and one that almost always brings the President to tears. The crowds have begun chanting at rallies such as during President Donald Trump's Nevada rally: "We love Trump! We love Trump! We love Trump! We love Trump!" And they need special encouragement to stop their chanting.

Trump supporters really love their president and with good reason. Once he became sick, the love quickly translated into deep concern. The fact is there is only one Donald Trump and more and more of his supporters are realizing that. None of Trump's accomplishments—his many great wins, would be ours without Trump. There is no future in a Biden Administration
